Annex A - Outline of Agreement of Accession and Collaboration for the provision of editorial content, free of charge, by private entities, aimed at promoting tourism in Italy 13

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

The Ministry of Tourism based in via Villa Ada 55, 00199, Roma, in the person of the Secretary General or his delegate, in his capacity as pro tempore legal representative and/or subject with the necessary powers to sign this agreement (hereinafter also only "MiTur"),

WHEREAS

- Article 54-bis, paragraph 1, of Decree-Law No. 22 of March 1, 2021, establishes the Ministry of Tourism, to which are attributed the functions and tasks pertaining to the State in the field of tourism, except those attributed, by the same decree, to other ministries or agencies, and without prejudice, in any case, to the functions conferred by current legislation to the regions and local authorities.
- with the Decree of the President of the Council of Ministers of May 20, 2021, No. 102 is adopted the Organizational Regulations of the Ministry of Tourism.
- Article 16 of Decree-Law No. 83 of 31/05/2014, converted with amendments by Law No. 106 of 29/07/2014, in conjunction with Article 16, paragraph 1, letter h of the aforementioned Organizational Regulations of the Ministry of Tourism provides that ENIT is subject to the supervision of the Ministry of Tourism.
- Article 16, paragraph 2, of Decree-Law No. 83 of 31/05/2014, converted with amendments by Law No. 106 of 29/07/2014, provides that ENIT, "in the pursuit of the mission of promoting tourism, intervenes to identify, organize, promote and market tourist, and cultural services and to encourage the marketing of food and wine, typical and artisanal products in Italy and abroad, with particular reference to investments in digital media, technological platform and internet network through the strengthening of the portal "Italia.it," also with the aim of creating and distributing a Tourist Card, even if only virtual, which allows, through digital tools and channels and special agreements with public and private entities, to make payments at reduced prices for the integrated use of public transport services and the institutes and places of culture.";
- By Decision of the EU ECOFIN Council of Ministers of July 13, 2021, the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (NRP) was approved, in which tourism investment projects - Mission 1, Component C3 "Tourism and Culture" - were allocated a total of 2 billion 400 million euros. The main interventions financed are the Tourism Digital Hub, the Integrated Fund for the Competitiveness of Tourism Enterprises, the Caput Mundi - New Generation EU project for major tourism events, and the reform of the Order of the Professions of Tourist Guides.
- The Ministry of Tourism is the owner of the website italia.it of which ENIT takes care of its promotion;
- On January 13, 2022, ENIT and MiTur signed the "Convention between the Ministry of Tourism and ENIT - National Tourism Agency - Three-year period 2022/2024" having as its object, among other things, the redefinition and implementation - in full cooperation with the Regions and Autonomous Provinces, within the timeframe and in the manner defined by MiTur itself, a new promotion strategy, strongly focused on digital and effectively contributing to the definition of the contents of the Tourism Digital Hub 2022 (hereinafter also just "TDH"), envisaged by the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (PNRR);

- On 4 January 2023 it was published in Gazz. Uff. L. 16 December 2022, n. 204 "Conversion into law, with amendments, of Decree-Law 11 November 2022, n. 173, containing urgent provisions on the reorganization of the attributions of the Ministries", art. 10-bis introduces a new paragraph 1-bis in Article 54-ter of Legislative Decree no. 300/1999, which provides that the Ministry of Tourism holds the title of the portal "Italia.it", the rights related to the domain itself and its technology platform, in order to coordinate and strategically direct the structuring of the portal itself and the activities of promoting national tourism policies carried out through it;
- MiTur initiated an articulated and complex project aimed at profitably matching tourist demand to Italy with the relevant Italian supply, according to the objectives and goals detailed below;
- the MiTur has initiated the public consultation procedure of the "Guidelines on Technical Interoperability and API Management" (hereinafter also only "TDH022 Guidelines");
- the MiTur involved, through different adhesion procedure, the Regions, the Autonomous Provinces and other territorial public bodies and Central Public Administrations, for the collaboration and cooperation to the Tourism Digital Hub;
- the MiTur, in the exercise of its institutional competences, does not in any case play the role of economic operator and operates exclusively for the purposes of public interest within its competence;
- art. 43 of Law no. 449 of December 27, 1997 expressly allows Public Administrations to enter into collaboration agreements geared to the public interest with the aim of innovating administrative organization and achieving greater economies, among which may also include activities related to the provision, free of charge, of editorial and/or publishing content with informational and non-commercial purposes to profitably match tourist demand towards Italy with the relative Italian offer and, in general, for the promotion of the opportunities offered by the TDH
- Article 119 of Legislative Decree No. 267 of August 18, 2000, where applicable, similarly allows municipalities, provinces and other local authorities to enter into sponsorship contracts and collaboration agreements, as well as conventions with public or private entities aimed at providing consultancy or additional services;
- the MiTur intend, therefore, to promote forms of collaboration and cooperation with all entities - both public and private - interested in the same goals and objectives;
- the MiTur intend to enter into collaboration agreements with private entities relating to the provision, even on a non-exclusive basis, of editorial and/or editorial content for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal, free of charge and without charge to MiTur, having the characteristics set out in this Notice;
- this procedure does not determine conditions of favor, priority, exclusivity and competitive advantage for the benefit of any party, nor opportunities for revenue and/or commercial profit, being the adherence to the initiative totally free and open, in compliance with the requirements set out in the dedicated paragraph and aimed, as a priority, at the promotion of the Italian tourism system as a whole, without profit-making purposes and/or for activities in any case of a commercial nature.

ANNOUNCES THAT

The purpose of this Notice is to collect adhesions, from private entities and economic operators, for the stipulation of collaboration agreements relating to the provision, even on a non-exclusive basis, of editorial and/or editorial content for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal, free of charge and without charge to MiTur, having the characteristics set forth in this Notice, better described below.

Art. 1 - Purpose of the Notice

The purpose of this Notice is to collect adhesions, on an equal basis, from private entities and economic operators, interested in entering into collaboration agreements with MiTur on the one hand, relating to the provision, also on a non-exclusive basis, of editorial and/or editorial content for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal, free of charge and without charges to MiTur, having the characteristics set forth in this Notice. The editorial content to be provided to MiTur for publication in the TDH ecosystem must have content suitable to profitably match tourist demand towards Italy with the relevant Italian offer, relating the following elements: person (tourist), content (from which to infer the person's interest), destinations and offer. In no case will be published content with purposes different from those clarified above and/or content even indirectly advertising and/or promotional of logos, trademarks and/or distinctive signs and/or designations of a commercial nature. It will be in any case guaranteed the copyright, giving evidence of logos, trademarks and/or distinctive signs and/or designations of the partners who have contributed to the drafting of each specific contribution.

The provision of editorial content will take place through the stipulation of a specific Agreement of adherence to the TDH ecosystem. The TDH interoperability application platform is owned by MiTur, which is responsible for its management and evolution. The TDH application platform is equipped with its own technological infrastructure (API Gateway, CMS, DAM, DMS) with which the adhering operators (Regions, Entities, economic operators) will have to interconnect by equipping themselves in turn with a technological infrastructure that allows them to exchange information and content, using an encrypted, authenticated and authorized mode according to the TDH022 Guidelines.

In particular, the editorial content must comply with the technical specifications provided in the <Technical Annex> and the <Editorial Guidelines> published by Media House, attached to this Notice.

Article 2 - Eligible subjects and subjective requirements.

All private subjects and economic operators, in whatever legal form they are constituted, provided that they operate, directly and/or indirectly in the sector of promotion and marketing of the tourism offer, in all its declinations, including related and related sectors, are eligible to participate.

Individuals and private economic operators, interested in submitting an application for admission must certify, by self-certification of the legal representative in accordance with Presidential Decree

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

No. 445/2000 with digital signature, that they are in good standing with tax, tax, insurance and social security obligations.

Subjects are not allowed to participate in the procedure covered by this notice:

- who are in situations involving the inability to contract with the Public Administration;
- who are in a situation, even potential, of incompatibility regarding the performance of the activity in question pursuant to Article 53 of Legislative Decree No. 165/2001;
- for whom there are causes of prohibition, disqualification or suspension referred to in Article 67 of Legislative Decree No. 159/2011;
- who have been convicted with a judgment that has become final or have been the recipients of a criminal decree of conviction that has become irrevocable or a judgment of application of the penalty on request, pursuant to Article 444 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, for serious crimes to the detriment of the State or the Community that affect professional morality. In the case of legal persons, this point refers to directors with powers of representation of the applicant;

Individuals not established in Italy may prove possession of the aforementioned requirements by producing equivalent documents, if any, issued by the competent judicial and/or administrative authorities of the country of origin, or, if not provided for, producing a declaration proving possession of the aforementioned requirements and/or stating that it is impossible to produce such documents.

The aforementioned requirements must be possessed at the time of signing the application form and must also be possessed by the Adherent throughout the term of the contract and/or provision of the service. MiTur reserves the right to verify the existence of the aforementioned requirements at any time. The ascertainment of the non-existence of even one of the aforementioned requirements may constitute cause for non-admission of the Adherent or, following the signing of the Collaboration Agreement, cause for its revocation.

Article 3 Contents, Methods and Deadlines for Submitting the Application

Interested parties must submit their application for membership, generated in PDF format on which to affix a digital signature of the legal representative or other person empowered to sign, to the following PEC address: dir.promozione@pec.ministeroturismo.gov.it.

Individuals who are not established in Italy and do not have a PEC email address may submit their application, generated in PDF format on which to affix the digital signature of the legal representative or other person empowered to sign, to the following email address: supportTDH@ministeroturismo.gov.it.

In case the signature is delegated to another person, it will be necessary to attach special power of attorney or delegation.

In its application, the partner must also indicate the names of the following contacts:

- 1) the legal representative;
- 2) delegated to signature (if required);
- 3) technical/operative referent.

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

For each of the subjects indicated, the following personal data should be reported: name; surname; tax code; e-mail.

Either party may replace, at any time its Referent by giving written notice to the other party.

The application must be duly accompanied by the self-declarations and self-certifications regarding the possession of the subjective requirements set forth in Article 2 of this Notice, pursuant to Articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000.

Failure to submit even one of the self-certifications provided as mandatory by this Notice will result in the rejection of the submitted application.

It is allowed to send only one application for each interested party; in case it is necessary to correct the application already submitted, it is still possible to proceed with the forwarding of a new application via PEC, subject to the cancellation of the previous one, to be communicated always by PEC.

The Authority reserves the right to request additional documentation to supplement what has already been submitted, if any.

Applications must be submitted exclusively in Italian or English.

In the first application, applications may be submitted no later than 11:59 p.m. on 30/06/2023.

The MiTur reserves the right to extend the terms of this notice beyond June 30, 2023, or, in the event of changed operational conditions or due to the need to update the TDH itself, to declare the Notice closed early, providing, if deemed useful, to issue a new notice with different conditions, following the changes that may occur on the TDH and its Guidelines in the early stages of implementation.

The MiTur may also publish subsequent editions of this Notice.

Art. 4 Admission procedure

All applications submitted will be subject to verification by the competent structures of MiTur in charge of defining the editorial strategies for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal.

The latter may request clarifications and/or documentary additions, including proceeding to verify the truthfulness of the data indicated and statements made in the application indicated in the application and to request supporting documents at any time pursuant to Article 71 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000. The right to verify checks and inspections regarding the truthfulness of the data indicated and the statements made in the application and to request supporting documents pursuant to Article 71 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000, also taking into account Legislative Decree No. 82 of March 7, 1995 - Digital Administration Code, may be exercised, even on a sample basis, throughout the entire period of membership.

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

Acceptance or denial of the application for membership will be followed by an e-mail/PEC notification to the interested parties and/or economic operators who have submitted an application within the deadline.

The denial will be communicated, with adequate justification, by email/PEC interested parties. The latter, within the period of ten days from receipt of the notice, have the right to submit their comments in writing, possibly accompanied by documents, by PEC.

If the application is denied, the interested party and/or economic operator may submit a new application once the causes of the denial have been remedied, where possible.

Following acceptance of the application for membership, the interested subject and/or economic operator will be invited by email/PEC to sign the relevant Membership Agreement, which will be made available through the procedures that will be communicated after the preliminary investigation phase.

Once the Adherence Agreement for the provision of editorial content has been signed, the Adherent will be enabled to transmit editorial content according to the technical characteristics set forth in art. 1 above, i.e., with those that will be, from time to time requested and specified by the structures of MiTur in charge of defining the editorial strategies for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal. The latter will have 15 days to evaluate the proposals received and communicate to the Adherent the willingness or unwillingness to publish the content transmitted, it being understood that this choice is the exclusive responsibility of MiTur, which will have no constraint and/or obligation to publish nor to justify its editorial choices without prejudice, however, to the full and effective equality of treatment and the exclusion of conditions of favor, priority, exclusivity and competitive advantage for the benefit of any of the subjects and/or private economic operators adhering. It is also specified that MiTur may make use of artificial intelligence tools that ensure the most effective placement of content within the pages of the site.

The Adherent will assign the editorial contributions in full right of use, without territorial and/or duration limits and free of charge, declaring that it is the full and exclusive owner of the rights of exploitation, including commercial exploitation by the copyright holders on the contents themselves and that it is, therefore, fully entitled to assign them for use to MiTur.

Art. 5 Outline of Subscription Agreement for the provision of editorial content.

In order to be able to interoperate with the TDH, each interested party and/or economic operator shall sign a Membership Agreement according to the attached outline.

The outline agreement is attached to this Notice for the mere purpose of making it known to each interested subject and/or economic operator already at this stage.

The compilation and signing of the Accession Agreement for the provision of editorial content by the interested subjects and/or economic operators will take place exclusively through the procedure

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge that will be referred, once the application itself has been declared admissible, in accordance with the Article 4.

Article 6 Duration of Membership

Adhesion to the TDH will have a duration of 18 months from the date of signing of the Adhesion Agreement for the provision of editorial content, without prejudice to the obligations to accept the changes that MiTur will make mandatory during the course of adhesion, as better specified in the outline of the Adhesion Agreement for the provision of editorial content referred to in Article 5 above.

If the adherent does not deem it necessary/possible to make the changes that MiTur will make mandatory in the course of adhesion, it may opt to withdraw from the contract as better specified in the outline of the Adhesion Agreement for the provision of editorial content referred to in Article 5 above.

During the period of adherence to the TDH, the Adherent is entitled to transmit to MiTur editorial contributions that may also be published and/or may remain published after the date of termination or revocation of the Adherence Agreement for the provision of editorial content and as long as deemed useful and/or appropriate at the sole discretion of MiTur.

Article 7 Revocation of Membership

In the event that the documentation certifying the possession of the requirements for membership contains untrue elements, or in cases where these subjective requirements are otherwise lost during the period of membership, the MiTur shall order the revocation of membership itself, and report the irregularities found to the competent Authorities for the investigation of any criminal, civil and administrative-accounting responsibilities. The revocation will be promptly communicated by email/PEC and will take effect immediately upon receipt of the notification.

In addition to the aforementioned cases, revocation of membership is regulated in the draft Membership Agreement for the provision of editorial content referred to in Article 5 above and is possible at any time under the conditions and in the manner specified therein.

Article 8 Obligations and responsibilities of the parties

The obligations and responsibilities of the parties are listed in Articles 5 and 6 in the outline of the Subscription Agreement for the provision of editorial content referred to in Article 5 above. It should be noted that these obligations commence from the signing of the Membership Agreement for the provision of editorial content, subsequent to the acceptance of the application for membership, according to the procedure outlined in Article 4 above.

Art. 9 Checks and verifications

At any time, the MiTur may carry out unannounced checks and verifications, including sample checks, on the fulfillment of obligations by the Adherent. In addition, MiTur may use advanced technological tools (e.g. social media monitoring) to identify any situations that jeopardize the reputation of the Entity or the TDH project. In such situations, the MiTur reserves the right to withdraw from the agreement in the forms governed by the Scheme referred to in Art. 5 and to activate any consequent initiative for compensation for any damages suffered.

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

Art. 10 - Person in charge of the Notice

The Single Person in charge of the procedure is Mr. Edoardo Merz, who can be contacted for information regarding this Notice at the following addresses:

- e-mail: supportTDH@ministeroturismo.gov.it
- tel: 06/4971 564

Art. 11 - Information and contacts

This Notice and all documentation related to it can be found on the dedicated page on the website: <https://www.ministeroturismo.gov.it/tourism-digital-hub/>. The publication has the value of notification towards the interested parties.

The MiTur reserves the right to supplement or amend this Notice as a result of supervening changes or amendments to the TDH22 Guidelines or to the regulatory framework of reference. In such a case, the MiTur will publish the intervening changes and communicate how to supplement the requests where necessary in the same manner as adopted for this Notice.

Any requests for clarifications can be sent to the following e-mail address: supportTDH@ministeroturismo.gov.it, later than 4:00 p.m. on 30/05/2023. Requests for clarifications received verbally, by telephone and/or by other means and, in any case, after the deadline indicated below will not be considered. Requests for clarifications that are generic, irrelevant or characterized by absolute uncertainty of origin will also not be considered.

Clarifications will be rendered by 06/06/2023, including by publication on the appropriate page referred to in paragraph 1 above. The clarifications as governed by this article form an integral and substantial part of this Notice.

Art. 12 – Privacy protection

The processing of data collected as part of the procedure referred to in this Notice shall be carried out in compliance with the current legislation on confidentiality (Legislative Decree No. 196/2003 as amended), as well as in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (G.D.P.R.) as amended.

Personal data will be processed exclusively for the purpose of carrying out the procedure under this Notice in accordance with the provisions contained in Article 22 of Regulation (EU) 2021/241.

The provision of data is mandatory and refusal to provide the same will result in the inability to complete the submission of the application.

The personal data in question will be processed, in accordance with the provisions of the law, with the use of security measures to ensure the confidentiality of the data subject to whom the data refer.

The Data Controller is the Ministry of Tourism, in the person of the Minister pro tempore.

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

Art. 13 - Jurisdiction and appeals

Interested parties and/or economic operators may appeal in the manner indicated below:

Against administrative measures:

- judicial appeal to the competent Regional Administrative Court within 60 days of receipt of the notice;
- Extraordinary appeal to the President of the Republic within 120 days of the communication.

In all other cases:

- appeal to the Ordinary Judge within the time limits provided by the Code of Civil Procedure.

For any disputes that may arise, the sole place of jurisdiction shall be Rome.

Article 14 Final Provisions

This Notice does not pertain to public contracts within the meaning of Legislative Decree No. 50/2016.

For anything not expressly provided for in this Notice, please refer to the relevant EU, national and regional regulations in force.

- the Applicant applied for applicantship on _____ 2022, registered under no. _____; which passed the preliminary investigation on _____ 2022;

- this Accession and Collaboration Agreement for the provision of editorial and/or editorial content (hereinafter also only the "Agreement") - which is stipulated directly by the MiTur pursuant to the aforementioned paragraph 1-bis of art. 54-ter of Legislative Decree no. 300/1999 - establishes a cooperation between MiTur and the Applicant which is aimed at enabling the Applicant to broadcast editorial and/or editorial content, even on a non-exclusive basis, according to the technical characteristics set forth in Art. 1 below, i.e., with those that will be, from time to time requested and specified by the structures of MiTur in charge of defining the editorial strategies for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal and having contents suitable to profitably match the tourist demand towards Italy with the relative Italian offer, relating the following elements: person (tourist), contents (from which to infer the person's interest), destinations and offer, according to the objectives and purposes detailed below;

- the MiTur in no case plays the role of economic operator and operates exclusively for the purposes of public interest within its competence;

- The MiTur intend to promote similar forms of collaboration and cooperation with all entities - both public and private - interested in the same objectives and purposes;

- The MiTur has already signed - and may sign new ones in the future - with other Applicant subjects, both public and private, similar Collaboration Adhesion agreements for the provision of editorial and/or publishing content;

- the Applicant declares that he/she is fully aware of and accepts the fact that all Applicant entities of the TDH will be placed on an equal footing with each other, without any pre-eminence, prevalence or position of advantage over other Applicants, having adhered to the TDH aware of this characteristic of the TDH itself;

- the Applicant operates directly and/or indirectly in the tourism sector and in particular:

- The Applicant intends to join the TDH for the provision of editorial and/or editorial content for which it declares to have and/or undertakes to obtain any right of use and sharing and is aware that participation in the TDH is on a voluntary basis and does not generate any direct remuneration for the Parties involved;

- The Applicant undertakes to provide exclusively editorial and/or editorial content with informative and popular purposes for the promotion of the Italian tourism sector, free of advertising and/or promotional messages of logos, trademarks and/or distinctive signs and/or commercial-type designations;

- The Applicant, for the purpose of interoperability with the Tourism Digital Hub, is equipped with an interoperable platform that allows to manage the APIs (invoke/expose) and gives the possibility to consult and monitor them guaranteeing their operational management as indicated in paragraphs 4.1 and 4.2 of the Interoperability Guidelines (TDH022);

Public notice for the conclusion of collaboration agreements for the provision of editorial content in the tourism sector free of charge

- The TDH is a platform of content and services to profitably bring together the tourism demand towards Italy with the related Italian offer (delivered by both national and international actors), linking the interests of the person (tourist), the destinations and the offer before, during and after the tourism experience, creating added value for all actors involved;
- The TDH rests on a technological infrastructure that makes possible the interoperability of MiTur and Applicants' information systems and databases, through the accreditation, identification and management of the authorization levels of those entitled to operate on it, as well as the collection and storage of information relating to access and transactions made through it. The sharing of data and information takes place through the provision by MiTur and the use by Adhering parties of application programming interfaces (APIs) developed by MiTur itself;
- No further approval steps are necessary, other than the signing of this Agreement, without prejudice to the discretionary activity in charge of the MiTur structures in charge of defining the editorial strategies for the website <https://www.italia.it> and/or for the TDH portal relating to the evaluation of the proposals for editorial and/or editorial content received from time to time by the Applicant, it being understood that such choice is the sole responsibility of MiTur, which shall have no constraint and/or obligation to publish nor to justify its editorial choices without prejudice, however, to full and effective equality of treatment and the exclusion of conditions of favor, priority, exclusivity and competitive advantage for the benefit of any of the subjects and/or public and/or private economic operators adhering;
- If falling within the same thematic area (e.g., catering), editorial and/or editorial content, if evaluated as suitable for publication, proposed by different Applicants will be made available on the TDH, where possible, on an equal basis, without any pre-eminence and/or priority accorded in any form or according to discretionary editorial choices competing with the achievement of pre-eminent promotional objectives.

All of the above being stated, the Parties, as hereinafter represented,

STIPULATE AND AGREE AS FOLLOWS

Article 1 - Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

- (a) Applicant: the entity that has joined the Interoperability Infrastructure with TDH through the accreditation process.
- (b) Applicants: the set of all entities, both public and private, that have joined and/or will join the TDH Interoperability Infrastructure in the future through the accreditation process and the signing of an applicant ship and interoperability agreement with TDH.
- (c) API: a set of procedures, functionalities, operations available to the programmer and usually grouped together to form a set of specific tools for performing a given task.
